EU2009.CZ

České předsednictví
Evropské unie

Czech Presidency of the European Union

Présidence tchèque
de l'Union européenne

2009

Czech eGovernment as an inspiration for Europe

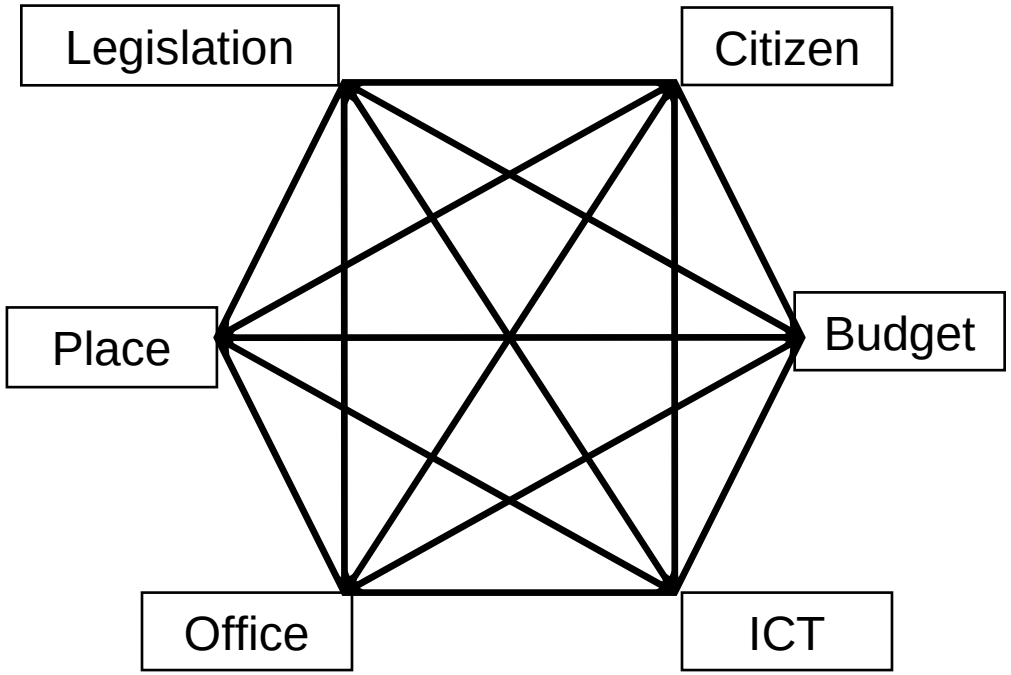
Zdenek Zajíček
Deputy Minister of Interior, Czech Republic

eID and Public Registers
Hradec Králové / 7th April 2009

EU2009.CZ

Hexagon of Public Administration

- systematic, complex approach
- simple, intuitive presentation
- symbolic expression

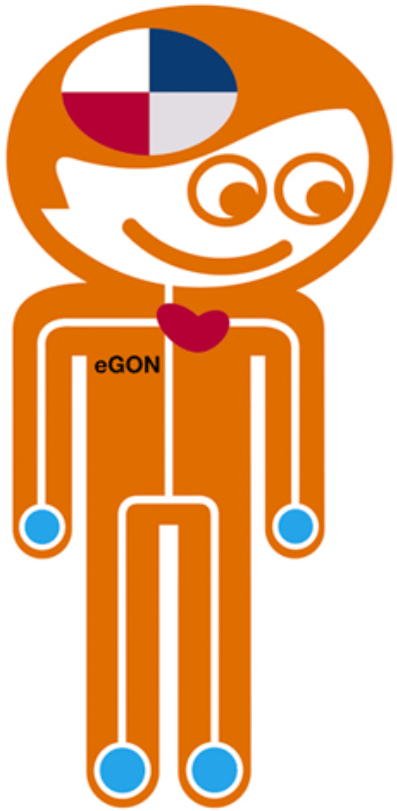


EU2009.CZ

eGON

- Modern – Friendly - Effective
- eGON as a concept of living organism

  - fingers – Czech POINT
  - heart – eGovernment act
  - circulatory system – KIVS
  - brain – primary registers of public administration



EU2009.CZ

Czech POINT

- Public administration in the palm of your hand.
- One stop shop.

Accessible

- e-shop 24/7
- almost 3 500 contact points

Multifunctional

- Real estate register
- Business register
- Trade register
- Penal Register

- almost 1.500.000 abstracts
- 3 528 contact points

EU2009.CZ

eGovernment act

On electronic transactions, data boxes and authorized document conversion

datové schránky

- data boxes
  - e-documents delivery
  - documents sent through data boxes the same validity as the signed document
  - guaranteed delivery – 10 days delivery period
  - mandatory using of data box for public administration offices
- document conversion (paper document ⇆ e-document)

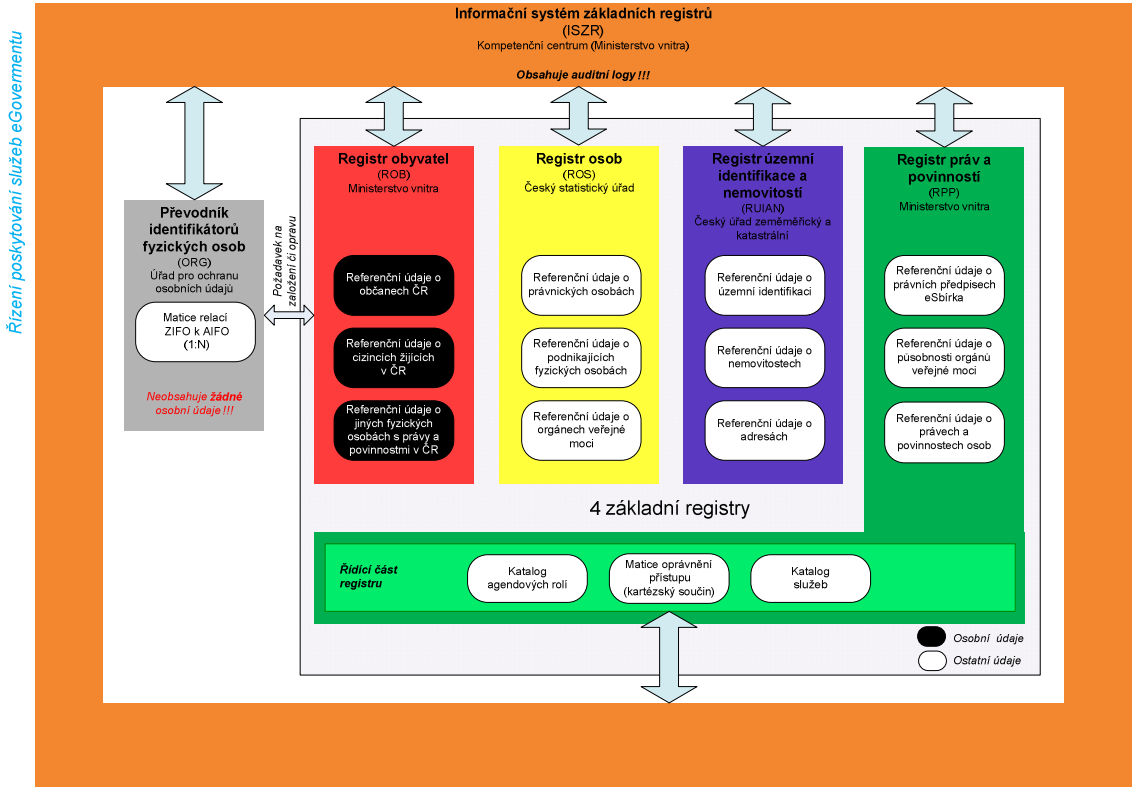
EU2009.CZ

KIVS (Public Administration Communications Infrastructure)

- unified communication infrastructure for public administration
- circulatory system of eGON - veins
- backbone for the eGovernment
- safe network
- gradual development into a competitive environment
- s-TESTA
- central service point | service desk | surveillance/supervision

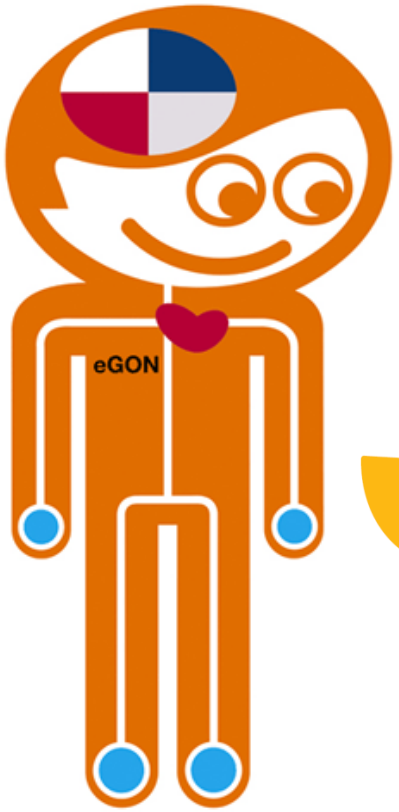
Primary registers of public administration

- Register of inhabitants
- Register of persons
- Register of geographical identification of addresses and properties (RUIAN)
- Register of rights and duties



EU2009.CZ

eGON



„Let's make the data run around, not the citizen!“

datové schránky